Consent form: To be Completed by a Parent/ Guardian

This part of the form should be completed by your parent or guardian. You can ask another adult to help you with the form, e.g. a teacher or someone who knows you well, but it is essential that your parent or guardian is in agreement with your application.

Your supporting adult should complete this form to the best of their knowledge, and feel free to provide additional information. The aim of this form is to ensure that the young people who volunteer with our Young Action Group are emotionally supported, and have an adult linked in with us for communication purposes, should the need arise.

Please note, there are voluntary online information evening sessions happening on Thursday 10 February 6pm-6.30pm, a repeat of this session will take place on Tuesday 22 February at 6pm-6.30pm. Young people and supporting adults are welcome to join these. These are an opportunity for you to hear more about the Youth Action Group and ask questions. You can also contact our Participation Officer directly on Alanna.Burns@respectme.org.uk Visit our Eventbrite page to register for webinar events

Name

Relationship to applicant

Are you able and willing to provide emotional support as required to the young person applying?

Do you consider the young person applying to be suitable for the role? Please take into consideration that this role deals extensively with the topic of bullying, and may from time to time, involve other young people referring to their own experiences.

Would you be willing to arrange travel for the young person applying for this role to a day session meet up, should COVID-19 restrictions permit during 2022?

Are you happy to support the young person applying to retain their commitment throughout the campaign planning, and beyond, as a campaign ambassador?

PERSONAL INFORMATION

respectme has sought the email address and phone number (if applicable) of our participation young people. This information will be held securely by respectme staff and will not be shared with any third parties or other young people involved in the group. The information will be used by respectme staff to contact your child in relation to Youth Action Group affairs, our intention is to carry out most communication via Google Classrooms and so communication to your child via any other channel will be kept to a minimum.
